

Chris Barrow Bio:

Chris resides in Richmond, KY with his wife and three kids and works for WSP Parsons Brinckerhoff in the Lexington office. There he provides support for U.S. Managed Motorways projects and general ITS/Traffic planning and operation services for KYTC and other DOTs across the country. Before joining WSP Parsons Brinckerhoff, Chris was a traffic engineer in GDOT's Atlanta TMC and was responsible for day to day operations, systems integration and maintenance activities of the regions 185 ramp meters. Chris began working at GDOT after finishing his undergraduate and master's degree from Georgia Tech in 2010.